General

§1

The Logistics-Service-Tariff applies to all performed services at the Leipzig fairground which are carried out by the official freight forwarder of Leipziger Messe GmbH. For safety reasons the use of cranes, forklifts and other industrial trucks on the fairground is permitted only to the approved forwarding agent.

§2

Charges shall be based at the prices listed in the Logistic-Service-Tariff. These forwarding rates are statutory maximum rates excluding German VAT. The calculation is performed for each order after the freight cartage, chargeable weight or rated on operation time. In the absence of the weight a flat rate is applied. Calculation basis: 1 cbm = 333 kgs.

With the overhead expenses the directions of the forwarding agent are paid. (Supply of manpower, forklifts, cranes, trucks etc.)

Communication and documentation costs will be charged as a flat rate, unless there are existing special expenses in connection with the transport process.

§3

For all orders to the official forwarding agent by the Logistic-Service-Tariff the General German Forwarding Agents' Terms and Conditions (ADSp) latest edition applies.

For heavy transport and crane working the forwarding agent is liable under the terms and conditions of the Federal Heavy Transport and Crane Work (BSK) latest version.

The ADSp and BSK are available for inspection at the office of the forwarding agent.

§4

For shipping to the official freight forwarder the exhibits are generally cleared free exhibition center Leipzig. Each package must be clearly marked with name and precise fair and stand designation of the consignee to ensure timely and reliable delivery.

§5

The contractual obligations and liability of the official forwarding agent:

- ends with the delivery of the goods at the marked exhibition booth. This applies even if the exhibitor or his representative is not present at the booth.

The delivery of the inbound shipment starts at first construction day, if no deadline exists.

- starts with the pickup of empties /full crates storage at the booth and ends with redelivery to booth after end of exhibition. No liability is accepted for exhibits or stand building material which is enclosed in the empties. These will be stored as full crates.

- starts first with the pickup of the return shipment at the booth in official dismantling period even if the exhibitor or his representative is not present at booth.

The handover of dispatch papers / orders in the office of the official forwarding agent shall not constitute a liability.

We recommended exhibitors to conclude an own transport and storage insurance. This may be mediated by the official freight forwarder. An insurance for empties is carried out only on special order.

For verbal instructions and orders through the exhibitor to the technical staff of the official freight forwarder there will be no liability accepted.

§6

The collection and storage of empties through the official freight forwarder is based only on a written order. The storage of empties in the exhibition halls isn't permitted acc. to the terms of building and fire department. If empties are still in the exhibition halls after the official end of buildup it will be removed by the official freight forwarder, even if no order is issued by the exhibitor. The costs will be charged to the exhibitor.

Empties are passed to the official freight forwarder suitable for transportation and marked with a clearly filled out empties sticker.

§7

Complaints of any kind must be submitted in written form to the office of the official freight forwarder. Verbal notifications are not sufficient.

§8

Invoices from the official freight forwarder have to be settled immediately. Default of payment will be latest 10 days after receipt of invoice without the need of a reminder. The official freight forwarder may charge late payment interests acc. to ADSp in the event of default.

§9

Exclusive place of performance for all obligations under contracts for both parties is Leipzig.

§10

This Logistic-Service-Tariff is valid from 1st January 2017. All the previous Logistic-Service-Tariffs lost their validity.
