Event Profile

Global changes, regional solutions: it is under this motto that the euregia trade fair addresses the urgent concerns Europe faces today in the light of current global developments. Euregia is the leading event for local and regional development in Europe. Fair and congress provide a comprehensive overview of current projects, networks and initiatives, best practice solutions and financing models. Featuring premium level expert symposiums, workshops and forums and an extensive range of exhibits, euregia is a unique information pool and an ideal setting for establishing contacts and having discussions with international local and regional development experts.
