Event Profile

The LVFM Insurance and Funds Fair has been held in Leipzig since 2005 and is the industry's largest trade fair in the eastern part of Germany. It is aimed at insurance and investment funds professionals, in particular insurance and financial services brokers. LVFM provides selected product suppliers the opportunity to present themselves to independent insurance and investment fund brokers. In this way industry attendees can form their own opinion about the product ranges offered by the various providers and discuss the associated issues directly. Visitors are also treated to a number of highly interesting presentations on current topics. Admission to the LVFM has always been free for trade visitors.
